

MIDDLETOWN PORTRAITS: Four Films About the People Behind Our Storefronts

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30 | 7 P.M.

The Buttonwood Tree Performing Arts Center
605 Main Street, Middletown, CT

FREE ADMISSION

Open mic night and Q&A session immediately following the event.

Refreshments Available

Spend an evening at The Buttonwood Tree Performing Arts & Cultural Center with student filmmakers from Wesleyan University's College of Film and the Moving Image. Four short films tell the stories behind local Middletown businesses: NORA'S CUPCAKES, O'ROURKE'S DINER, THE BUTTONWOOD TREE, and VINNIE'S JUMP & JIVE. Introduction and Q&A with student filmmakers, their instructor, Sadia Shepard, assistant visiting professor of film studies at Wesleyan University, and the course assistant, Matthew Kleppner.

